

please keep New Jersey's "do not call list" regulations in place. I have not received any telemarketing calls in some time and it is a pleasure. How many times do you rush for a phone only to find it is a telemarketing call. They are a nuisance and an invasion of my private time at home. Lets keep the home a private place, safe from the telemarketers. keep NJ a safe harbor . Ron Bochner